HEALTH, MEDICAL AND FAMILY WELFARE (E1) DEPARTMENT

G.O.Ms.No.267

Dated: 14-7-1997

ORDER:

Government have been examining the question of evolving policy guide-lines for establishment of (1) Nursing Schools : (2) Multipurpose Health Worker (Female) Schools: (3) Physio-Therapy training centers: and (4) Para-Medical training centers, for quite some time now. After detailed examination of the issues involved, Government have prepared the policy guide-lines to be followed while considering applications from interested persons for establishment of the above categories of institutions. In order to bring about uniformity and also to ensure that objective criteria to be applied while examining the applications, Government have decided that a Committee be constituted under the Chairmanship of a retired High Court Judge to undertake the following exercise:

1. To scrutinize the existing/proposed policies of the Government in regard to the above institutions and suggest necessary changes as may be expedient.
2. The Committee will examine the number of institutions of each category existing in each district and make an assessment of the requirement of additional institutions keeping in mind the question of maintaining regional balance. The Committee will then proceed to publish an advertisement in important national and local news papers calling for applications from interested parties and specify in the advertisement the number of institutions which would be located in each district.
3. They shall also call for applications from interested parties through advertisements published in local and national news papers. They shall also consider the applications pending with the Department along with those received through open advertisement.
4. The Committee shall make it clear in the advertisement that those parties who had already applied should also apply again, if they are interested.
5. The Committee may also consult the guide-lines being followed by Technical Education Department in regard to granting permissions to Engineering Colleges, ITIs, etc.
6. The Committee shall scrutinize the applications with reference to the policy guide-lines and furnish the list of applications recommended for according permission.

2. Accordingly, Government hereby constitute a Committee with Members as indicated below to process the applications received from interested persons for establishment of the above categories of institutions and submit recommendations to the Government from time to time for taking a final decision:-
