Dear Sir,

Every year, in order to commemorate the birth anniversary of HRH Prince Mahidol of Songkla (the grandfather of the present King of Thailand, who is considered to be the father of public health in Thailand), the Royal Thai Government confers the Prince Mahidol Award on individuals or institutions that have demonstrated outstanding performances and/or undertaken research that contributes to the advancement of medical and public health services.

The Award is given in two categories i.e. an Award in Medicine and an Award in Public Health. The prize comprises a medal, a certificate and USD 100,000/-. HRH Princess Mahachakri Sirindhorn, sister of the present monarch, is closely involved with the conferment process of this award.

I would recommend that GOI nominates an individual/group of individuals or an institution for this award. In the past, eminent doctors from India have served on the jury of this award as well. Enclosed is the formal request received from the Thai Ministry of Foreign Affairs which also gives the details of the nomination process which can be submitted online. The last date for submission of nomination is May 31, 2023.

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
